

Visit cancer.org/colon or call 1-800-227-2345 to learn more.

There are several screening options available, including simple take-home tests. Talk to your health care provider about the test that's right for you. And remind the people you love who are 50 or older to get tested, too. Together, we are a united force against colon cancer and all cancers.

If you're 50 or older, get tested for colon cancer. It could save your life.

If you're 50 or older, get tested for colon cancer. It could save your life.

There are several screening options available, including simple take-home tests. Talk to your health care provider about the test that's right for you. And remind the people you love who are 50 or older to get tested, too. Together, we are a united force against colon cancer and all cancers.

Visit cancer.org/colon or call 1-800-227-2345 to learn more.